FidoTV Channel debuts new series featuring Tibor Fiegel

Series focuses on training and rescue efforts by following Florida Animal Control's 2016 Volunteer of the Year

CASTLE ROCK, CO, (January 6, 2016) — FidoTV Channel announced today that its new original series devoted to the training of problem dogs and their owners. "Tibor To The Rescue" follows Florida Animal Control's 2016 Volunteer of The Year as he tackles problems from nuisance to severe to help owners and their beloved dogs. A native of Hungary, Tibor came to the U.S. and after modeling in New York and fashion runways discovered his love for dogs and passion for helping owners fix issues impacting them and their dogs.

"There is a right way and a wrong way to train and fix problems," said Tad Walden, CEO of FidoTV Channel. "Tibor brings a firm, but gentle approach and some tricks to help owners navigate the training needed to make their lives easier and their dogs happier."

Each episode of Tibor To The Rescue features Tibor helping a new dog owner evaluate and adopt a new dog from a Florida shelter. Tibor's approach to evaluating and placing the right dog with the right owner is invaluable, and is guaranteed to warm your heart as a dog gets a second chance on a new life.
