FidoTV Channel debuts second season of programming series featuring in-depth profiles of 12 AKC dog breeds

Which Woof's For Me? series focuses on AKC experts and history of each breed

CASTLE ROCK, CO, January 31, 2017 — FidoTV Channel announced today the production of Season 2 of its original series Which Woof's For Me? This new season highlights and examines 12 dog breeds with in-depth information and details of each breed. Everything from breed history, temperament, weight, coat, nutrition and grooming needs, lifespan, health, trainability, living space needed, and more, is covered in each episode. Viewers get an entertaining and engaging introduction from breeders and owners as the show features puppies to senior dogs and helps people answer that big question, "Which Woof's for Me?"

The Australian Shepherd and the English Cocker Spaniel are the first breeds profiled. Viewers are invited to get to know the smart, work-oriented, and exuberant Australian Shepherd, as well as the merry and responsive English Cocker Spaniel. Additional series episodes feature Collies, Whippets, Portuguese Water Dogs, Newfoundlands, Cairn Terriers, French Bulldogs, Dachshunds, Yorkshire Terriers, Poodles, and Chihuahuas.

These shows feature recognized and reputable American Kennel Club breeders and owners speaking about their particular breed passion. Founded in 1884, the AKC is the most authoritative source for information about purebred dogs. The American Kennel Club is dedicated to upholding the integrity of its Registry, and promoting the sport of purebred dogs and breeding for type and function.
